MOTION TO REMAND FOR PROCEDURAL DEFECT

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, Margaret Whetstone, in the above referenced matter and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c), respectfully request that this Honorable Court remand this case to the Tallapoosa County Circuit Court and for grounds would show the court that the notice of removal filed by the defendant Fred's Stores of Tennessee, Inc., is procedurally defective because not all properly served defendants have consented to the removal of this action.

The Plaintiff originally filed this action in the Tallapoosa County Circuit Court at Alexander City on November 9th 2005. (Petition of Removal, ¶ 1). The Defendant Fred's Stores of Tennessee, Inc. (hereinafter "Fred's") was served on November 14th 2005 and Defendant Cintas Corporation (hereinafter "Cintas") was served on November 15th 2005. (State court's record exhibit "A" & "B"). All of the Defendants were served prior to the filing of the Notice of Removal and Petition of Removal.

This motion to remand is timely under 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c) as it is being filed within 30 days of the first Notice of Removal filed by Fred's on December 8th 2005.

On December 8th exactly 24 days after being served, a Notice of Removal was filed by the Defendant Fred's in the Circuit Court of Tallapoosa County at Alexander City, Alabama notifying the state court that the Defendant had that day filed its Petition for Removal in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama. (Exh. C, Pacer Docket Sheet as of December 13, 2005). The Notice of Removal was signed by the attorney for Fred's. (Notice of Removal, p.1) The Notice of Removal did not contain a consent to removal by the served Defendant, Cintas, nor was it signed by the attorney for Cintas. Cintas has not filed a separate consent to removal in any pleading, let only within the 30 day window of time that it had to do so between November 15th, the day on which it was served, and December 15th, 2005. Additionally, the Notice of Removal incorrectly notified the state court that it had filed its Petition in the United State District Court for the Northern District of Alabama, when in fact, the Defendant had filed it Petition in the Untied States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama. Therefore, the Notice of Removal to the state court was procedurally defective.

28 U.S.C. § 1446(a) requires that each defendant file a notice of removal, either independently or by unambiguously joining in or consenting to another defendant's notice, within the thirty [30] day period following service of process. Because the filing requirements contained in 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a) are mandatory, there is no federal jurisdiction when one of the defendants fails to join in, file his own, or officially and unambiguously consents to a removal petition within 30 days of service.

Miles v. Kilgore, 928 F. Supp. 1071, 1076 (N. D. Ala. 1996).

Based on the foregoing, there is no federal jurisdiction in this matter since the defendant Cintas has failed to join, file its own or officially and unambiguously consent to the petition for removal of the Defendant Fred's within 30 days of its being served on November 14th 2005, and the case should be remanded to the Circuit Court of Tallapoosa County.

On December 8th Fred's filed its Petition of Removal in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama. (Exh. D, Pacer Docket Sheet as of December 13, 2005). The Petition was signed by Elizabeth Jackson, attorney for Fred's. (Petition of Removal p. 7) Although the Petition of Removal stated in its preamble paragraph that "Come now the defendants, Fred's Stores of Tennessee, Inc., and Cintas Corporation and file their Petition of Removal and show unto Court as follows:..." the attorney for Cintas did not sign the Petition of Removal. Additionally, the Petition did not contain a written indication that all properly joined and served Defendants consent to and join in the removal of this action.

More than 30 days after the first defendant was served, Cintas has failed to file a consent to removal of this case to the U. S. District Court. Even if the defendants argue that their consent was included in the Petition of Removal that pleading remains procedurally defective.

The case of Newman v. Spectrum Stores, Inc. 109 F. Supp 2d 1342 (M.D. Ala. 2000) is directly controlling on this issue. In the Newman case, the court remanded a case where, as here, a defendant filed a timely notice of removal stating that all defendants consented to removal, but the other defendant failed to file a "timely filed written indication" that it had actually consented to the removal.

The Newman court first reviewed the standard for remand, stating the following:

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction... As such federal courts only have the power to hear cases that they have been authorized to hear by the Constitution or the Congress of the United States... Because federal court jurisdiction is limited, the Eleventh Circuit favors remand of removed cases where federal jurisdiction is not absolutely clear... courts, which include the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. See, Getty Oil Corp. [Div of Texaco, Inc. V. Insurance Co. of North Am.], 841 F 2d [1254] at 1262, n. 11 [5th Cir. 1988]. In its timely Notice of Removal, Protective Life informs that court that “[a]ll named and served Defendant have consented to and join in the removal of this action...” Notice of Removal at ¶ 1. This filing was inadequate as to Spectrum... A consent to removal must be filed within thirty days after the first defendant is served. Protective Life was served on May 3, 2000, sixty-nine days before Spectrum’s Consent to Removal was filed. Neither the later filed consent nor the later assertion by counsel that the statement included in the Notice of Removal was authorized can cure the defect. Consequently, the unanimity rule has been violated.

Newman, 109 F. Supp. 2d at 1346. (Emphasis added.)

28 U.S.C. § 1446(a) requires that each defendant file a notice of removal, either independently or by unambiguously joining in or consenting to another defendant’s notice, within the thirty [30] day period following service of process. Neither the Notice of Removal nor the Petition of Removal filed by Fred’s contain language that all named and served defendants have consented to and join in the removal or contain any “written indication” that Cintas has ever actually consented to the removal. Accordingly, based on the 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a), the Miles and Newman cases and the fact that Cintas has failed to file a consent to removal within thirty (30) days after Fred’s was served, this case is due to be remanded to the Circuit Court of Tallapoosa County, Alabama.

In addition to an Order of Remand the Plaintiff seeks other relief to which she may be entitled.

Respectfully submitted on this the 27th day of December, 2005.
